ISSN 1873-9830 / E-ISSN:1873-9849

Brill's all-new Third Edition of the globally respected Encyclopaedia of Islam (EI3), the preeminent reference work in the field, began publication in the Spring of 2007. EI3 is an entirely new work, which rigorously maintains the comprehensiveness and reliability of the great multivolume set, with new articles reflecting the great diversity of current scholarship. The EI3 appears in four substantial parts each year, both online and in print. The new scope includes comprehensive coverage of Islam in the twentieth century, attention to Muslim minorities all over the world, and gives full attention to social science as well as humanistic perspectives.

Encyclopaedia of Islam ^{THREE}

Gudrun Krämer, Freie Universität Berlin, Denis Matringe, École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales Paris, John Nawas, Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, and Everett Rowson, New York University

The Third Edition of Brill's Encyclopaedia of Islam is an entirely new work, with new articles reflecting the great diversity of current scholarship. It will appear in four substantial segments each year, both online and in print. The new scope includes comprehensive coverage of Islam in the twentieth century and of Muslim minorities all over the world.

EI Online consists of both EI2 AND EI3. The latter is a work in progress which started last year. So far c. 800 pages of new articles have appeared. Most of these articles are in the A, but a few Bs and a single I have also appeared so far. We expect to publish another 200-400 pages this year, again mostly from A and B. Next year we will move on in the alphabet. For those entries not yet available in EI3 we refer our clients to EI2. The search engine for EI Online automatically searches both editions and offers the most recent results first in the list of hits.

Encyclopaedia of Islam

New Edition, EI2

Edited by E.J. Donzel, Edmund Bosworth, Wolfhart Heinrichs and Thierry Bianquis

The Encyclopaedia of Islam (New Edition, now also called EI2) is a unique and invaluable reference tool, an essential key to understanding the world of Islam, and the authoritative source not only for the religion, but also for the believers and the countries in which they live. It includes articles on distinguished Muslims of every age and land, on tribes and dynasties, on the crafts and sciences, on political and religious institutions, on the geography, ethnography, flora and fauna of the various countries and on the history, topography and monuments of the major towns and cities. In its geographical and historical scope it encompasses the old Arabo-Islamic empire, the Islamic countries of Iran, Central Asia, the Indian sub-continent and Indonesia, the Ottoman Empire and all other Islamic countries. EI2 is completed with Index of Subjects, Index of Terms and Index of Proper Names.

Islamic Desk Reference

Compiled from The Encyclopaedia of Islam

E.J. Donzel

- August 1994
- ISBN 978 90 04 09738 4
- Cloth with dustjacket* (xi, 492 pp. 8 illus., 16 maps)
- List price EUR 138.- / US$ 205.-

The growing demand for concise and factual information about the history and culture of Islam has now been met with the Islamic Desk Reference. This handy one-volume work contains a condensation of the subject-matter of The Encyclopaedia of Islam, the most prestigious and valuable reference work for Islamic studies published this century. In a brief, orderly and intelligible form the Islamic Desk Reference provides thus a unique and valuable quick reference tool for those interested in the religion, the believers and the countries of the Islamic world. All entries in the Islamic Desk Reference are given in English. Thus, names of Arabic origin which in the West were corrupted to another spelling, e.g. Ibn Sina to Avicenna, al-Kuhl to alcohol, are found under the latter term. The Islamic Desk Reference contains maps, diagrams and genealogical tables for easy reference, and illustrations.

Shorter Encyclopaedia of Islam

Edited on Behalf of the Royal Netherlands Academy

Edited by H.A.R. Gibb and J.H. Kramers

- June 1991
- ISBN 978 90 04 00681 2
- Cloth* (viii, 671 pp. 7 plates, 2 plans)
- List price EUR 120.- / US$ 179.-

The Shorter Encyclopaedia of Islam is an unequalled reference work of all subjects which concern, or touch on, the religion and law of Islam. As to its geographical and historical scope, the work embraces the old Arabo-Islamic Empire, the Islamic states of Iran, Central Asia, the Indian sub-continent and Indonesia, the Ottoman Empire, and the various Muslim states and communities in Africa, Europe and the former U.S.S.R. The Shorter Encyclopaedia of Islam contains an extensive index and bibliography. This publication has also been published in paperback, please visit brill.nl for details.
