

Turkish Language I: Phonology And Morphology (2-0) 2

Definition and importance of language; relation of language and culture; linguistics; Developmental stages of Turkish language; phonology, vowels, consonants, sound events, phonetic characteristics of Turkish; Turkishization of foreign words; structural knowledge, root, morpheme, simple, derived and compound words; word phrases, word types, verb, name, determiner, prefix, adjective, conjunction, suffix, exclamation. Root words in Turkish, suffixes for producing noun and verb from a noun, suffixes for producing noun and verb from a noun, types of inflectional suffixes, stereotyping.

Course Material:

Üniversiteler için Türk Dili, Muharrem Ergin, Bayrak Yayınları, İstanbul, 2012.

Supplementary Materials:

- Şekil Bilgisi, Zeynep Korkmaz, Türk Dil Kurumu Yayını, Ankara, 2003.
- Terim Sorunları ve Terim Yapma Yolları, Hamza Zülfikar, Türk Dil Kurumu Yayını, Ankara, 2000.
- Her Yönüyle Dil-Ana Çizgileriyle Dilbilim, Doğan Aksan, Türk Dil Kurumu Yayını. Ankara, 2003.