KMU 2026–2027 Academic Year Student Contributions and Tuition Fees

Turkish Proficiency and Preparatory Education

Students who are unsuccessful in, or do not take, the Turkish Proficiency and Level Determination Examination administered by our University are required to receive Turkish preparatory education at KMU TÖMER.

The course fees for Turkish preparatory education are determined and announced by KMU TÖMER. Turkish proficiency and preparatory education are conducted according to the following principles:

- 1) Students who complete final registration must submit a Turkish Proficiency Certificate. Certificates issued by the Yunus Emre Institute, TÖMER Course Achievement Certificates, or documents showing the results of the Proficiency and Level Determination Examination administered by our University are accepted as Turkish Proficiency Certificates. Yunus Emre Institute or TÖMER certificates must have been obtained within the last two years as of the date of university registration. The validity of these documents is determined by TÖMER.
- 2) Students who cannot submit a Turkish Proficiency Certificate must take the Proficiency and Level Determination Examination administered by KMU TÖMER. The equivalence table (Table-1) prepared by KMU TÖMER shall be used as the basis for evaluation.
- 3) Students who cannot submit a Proficiency Certificate, are unsuccessful in the Proficiency and Level Determination Examination, or do not take the examination must receive Turkish preparatory education at KMU TÖMER. The duration of Turkish preparatory education is one year. Students who are unsuccessful at the end of this period are granted an additional one-year extension, which is counted as part of the period of study. The maximum duration of Turkish preparatory education is two years. If students fail the Turkish preparatory education due to absenteeism, their registrations will be canceled.
- 4) Those who wish, for various reasons, to receive Turkish preparatory education at a TÖMER affiliated with another state university must submit proof of their registration and placement within 30 days after leaving TÖMER. For students who submit these documents, their registration is considered frozen for one year. These students must submit their Turkish Proficiency Certificate to KMU TÖMER by the end of working hours on the last working day of July. Otherwise, their registration will be canceled.
